

Environmental Performance Measures Record-Keeping Requirements for Drinking Water and Wastewater Network Operators Notice 2024

This notice made under section 146(1) of the Water Services Act 2021 (“Act”), by the Chief Executive of Taumata Arowai—the Water Services Regulator (“Taumata Arowai”) exercising delegated authority, requires network operators to keep and maintain records relating to compliance with environmental performance measures for networks developed and published under section 145 of the Act.

1. Empowering provision

Water Services Act 2021, section 146(1).

2. Commencement

This notice comes into force on 1 July 2024.

3. Record-keeping requirements

Drinking water and wastewater network operators must keep and maintain records of the information listed for the applicable class of network in the document Network Environmental Performance Measures and Guide 2024, published on the Taumata Arowai website on 14 May 2024 at <https://www.taumataarowai.govt.nz>.

Network operators must provide the records kept and maintained in accordance with this notice to Taumata Arowai for each reporting period of 1 July to 30 June, by no later than the following 30th day of September each year.

The records must be provided electronically on a template sent or made available to network operators by Taumata Arowai.

4. Administering agency

Taumata Arowai is the administering agency for this notice.

5. Secondary legislation

This notice is secondary legislation for the purposes of the Legislation Act 2019.

6. Replacement of previous record-keeping requirements

This notice revokes and replaces all previous record-keeping requirements notices made under section 146(1) of the Act from 1 July 2024.

Network operators required to keep and maintain records for the reporting period from 1 July 2023 to 30 June 2024 under the Environmental Performance Measures Record Keeping Requirements for Drinking Water Network Operators Notice 2023 must provide those records to Taumata Arowai no later than 30 September 2024, as though it was not revoked.

Dated at Wellington this 23rd day of May 2024

ALLAN PRANGNELL, Chief Executive.
